

From Steve

You may have noticed I have something of a collection of Christmas shirts:

Carols in the Park

May your Christmas be radiant. May you reflect the light that comes among us. May we be bright and shiny, so that everyone can see our joy.

May we stand amid our wider community and give witness to the light of the world.

CBC Christmas Party

May your Christmas be filled with the gift of good conversations that celebrate the love of family, friends and one another.

Christmas Day (yet to be revealed)

May your Christmas be a time of surprise and wonder, as we again remember and celebrate the infant child that saves the world.

May Christmas also be a time a time of hope and prayer as we head into 2024.

Merry Christmas Everyone. It is indeed a privilege to walk with you as the people of God here at CBC.
